Highlights of Franklin County High

FRANKLIN COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL is located on Route 40, one mile south of Rocky Mount, Virginia. The enrollment is 1200 students who come from all parts of the county.

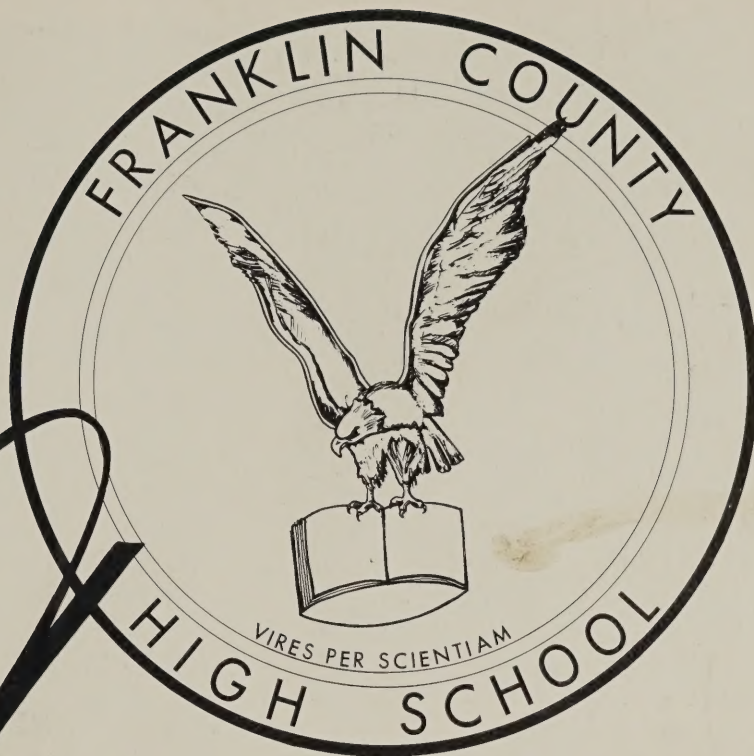

Rocky Mount, being the center of population and favored geographically, led the people to decide to build the school at its present site.

The center section of the main building was completed in 1949. By 1951, two wings had been added to complete the original plans. Since that time an agriculture building has been built and a home economics cottage has been purchased.

Today we have a modern, up-to-date school of which we can all be proud. The appearance of F. C. H. S. will always be stamped in the memories of its students.

Gay Frith, Editor of 1960 Animo.

INTANGIBLE FELLINGS are the heart of a happy school year. The feelings of joy at the outcome of an election, pride in a class project, school spirit at an athletic contest, and fulfillment on graduation day each mark a high point in a school year. Each of these feelings is manifested by a special event at Franklin County High, and it is these events that are featured in the 1960 ANIMO. The ANIMO is different this year: it has new layouts, new organization, and different spirit. Each subscriber now owns a treasure that can never be replaced, either physically or spiritually.

Dedication

THE DEDICATION is a matter which the staff of the yearbook must give much time and attention. The yearbook itself is in recognition of a single year's activities and accomplishments. The dedication, however, recognizes the contributions made by an individual through many years. It was with these thoughts that we labored and planned and finally arrived at this-our dedication:

She is a hardworker but seldom complains. She has a thousand and one difficult jobs to perform but remains helpful and friendly. Each of our fifty-five staff members and twelve hundred students receives the benefit of her daily tasks-tasks which are done with so much care and devotion to duty and such little thought of personal gain or glory. For these reasons, and more, we, the staff, dedicate the ANIMO, 1960, to

It is a tense moment in a close game as John Joplin gives his all against a Christiansburg player.

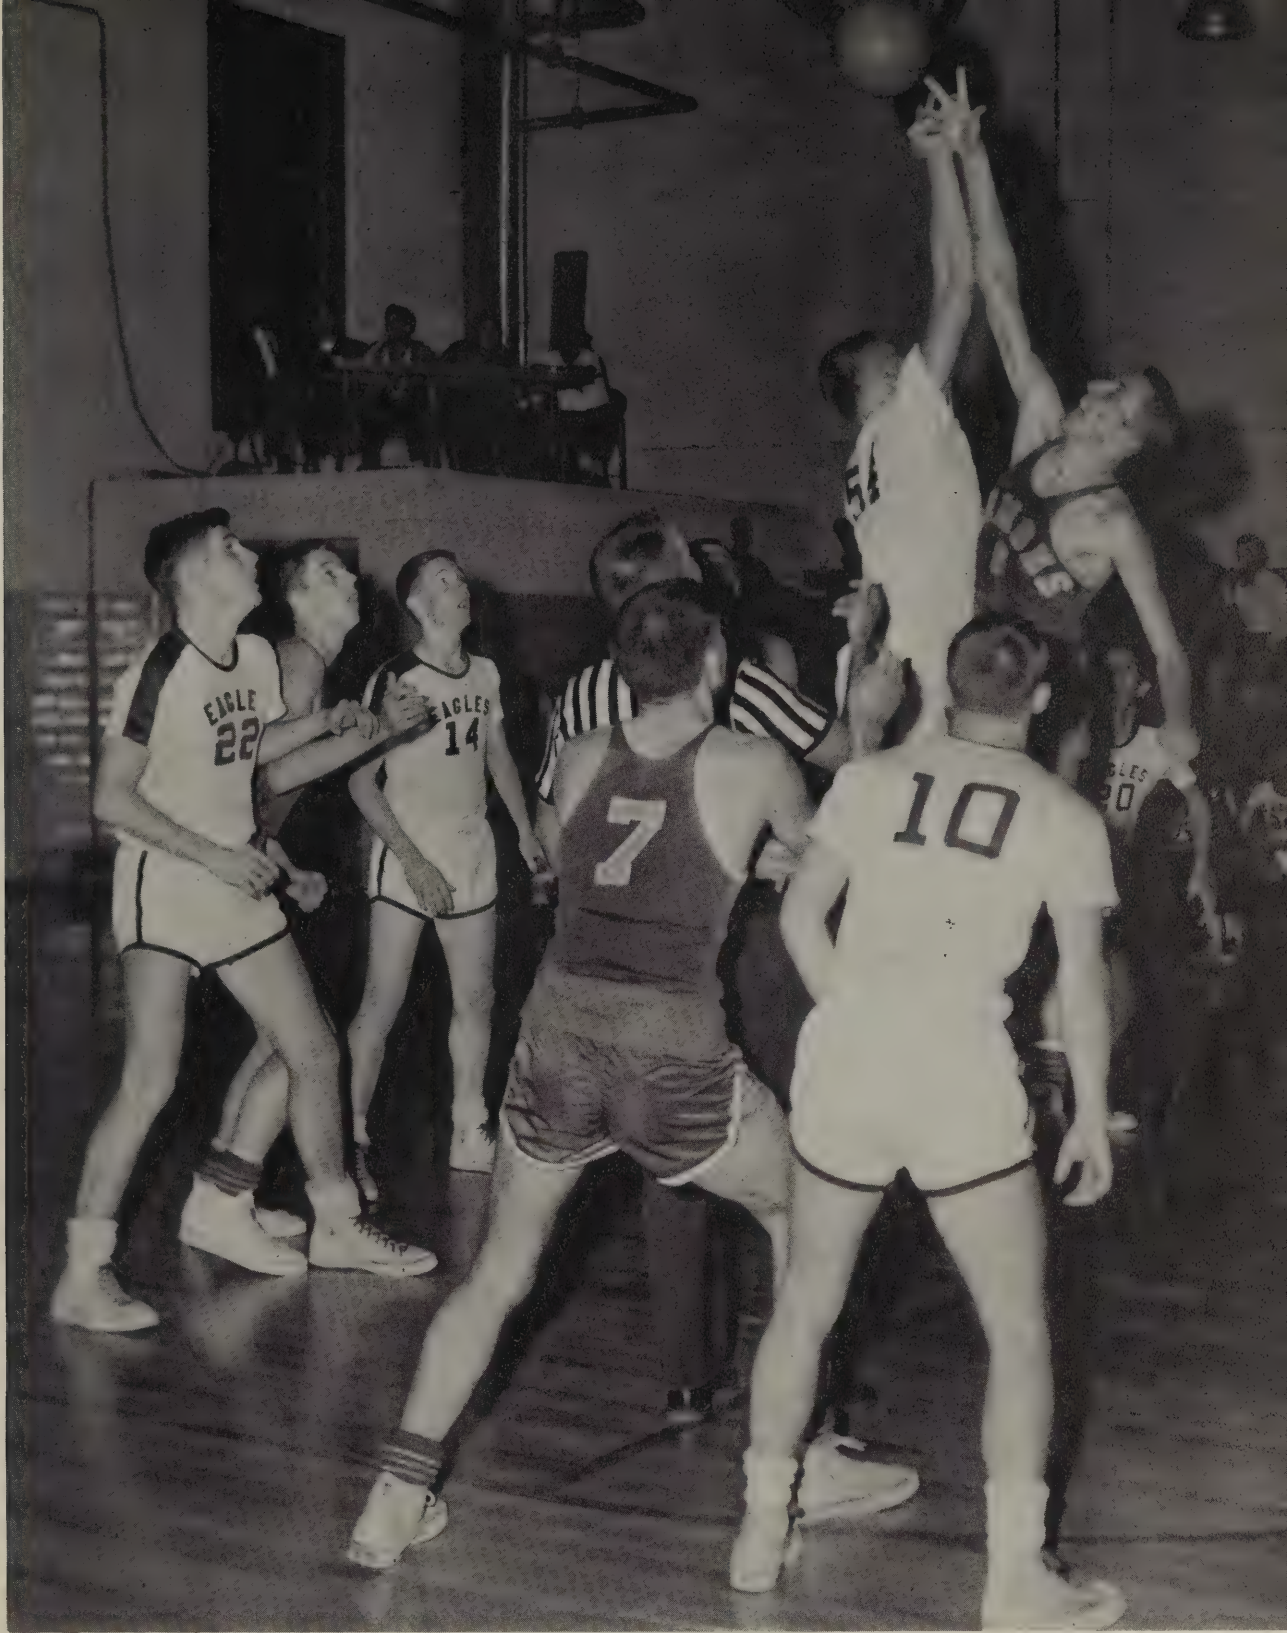

One of the activities of the Student Council is to provide student buses to basketball and football games.

The musical score of the Broadway play "Showboat" enabled Cordell Bowman and Emma Dillon to carry out the theme at the 1959 Junior-Senior Prom.

F.C.H.S. students find never-to-be forgotten activities strewn over nine months.

Four of Miss Prillaman's Math IV students show geometric ingenuity as they display some of their work.

Home Ec. girls learn the practical side to housekeeping.

Science students gain first-hand knowledge of plants and insects on one of their several field trips.

THE HOURS SPENT in the classroom were the most valuable ones during the day. Students acquired knowledge in subjects ranging from vo-ag and home economics to physics and English grammar. Special visitors, reports, movies, and field trips relieved the daily pattern of problem - solving, reading, and discussion. New textbooks in several classes brought them up to date.

Also new at Franklin County High School this year was the full time guidance program. Mrs. Morris and Mr. Law worked with the administration, the faculty, the students, and the parents to provide information, counseling, placement, and follow-up service for eighth, ninth and tenth graders, and Mr. Law advised juniors and seniors concerning college selection and career choice.

This year's report card system was different. Students received an A, B, C instead of an E, G, or S. Everyone seemed to like the new system because the passing range is broken down into more categories and gives the student a chance to earn better grades for his work.

The Alpha Tri-Hi-Y and Junior Tri-Hi-Y co-sponsor weekly devotions which are given over the intercom. The two clubs alternate the responsibility of securing and presenting the speaker of the week. Ministers and religious leaders throughout the county have co-operated with the clubs making it a successful project. Pictured here are Jesse Fralin, The Reverend Robert Estes, and Mary Jo Bryant.

These hard-working salesmen place their orders with S. C. A. members for prizes awarded them for selling magazines.

MONDAY IS CLUB DAY AT F. C. H. S.! All clubs are required to meet once a month on this day except the Student Council which meets bi-weekly. If a student has passing grades, he is permitted to leave his class to attend a club meeting.

Clubs play an important role in the extra-curricular activities for students at F. C. H. S. They give the students a chance to express themselves, add zest and enjoyment to their lives, and provide an opportunity for service to their school and community.

Class Treasuries

CLUBS EARN MONEY through several different methods. Namely, selling magazines, candy, pencils, shakers, all-occasion cards, and stationery. Bake sales are also popular as money raising projects. The presentation of plays is yet another way of enriching treasuries.

Selling shakers is a project sponsored by the Cheer Club and the Pep Club.

ONE OF THE MAJOR ACTIVITIES of the S. C. A. was its annual magazine sales campaign. The plateau system was used offering a different prize for each plateau and giving each homeroom an opportunity to compete for a prize.

In the past years, the profits from these campaigns have been given to the band for uniforms and the Athletic Association for lighting the football field. This year the S. C. A. has deliberated over several new worthwhile projects. Until a decision can be reached, the money will remain in a fund designated for school improvement.

Registered and Student Nurses from Roanoke Memorial and Jefferson Hospitals demonstrate some of the duties of a student nurse.

Guidance Counselor Morris Law spends unnumbered hours compiling data about colleges for interested students.

THE S. C. A., in co-operation with the Guidance Department, prepared a College Night program for those students interested in furthering their education upon completion of high school.

All juniors and seniors were encouraged to attend this important and informative program. Representatives from business schools, hospitals, various branches of the armed forces, and thirty colleges were present to confer with students and parents.

HOMECOMING 1959, despite the threat of rain, proceeded in its usual festive manner. The big affair began Thursday night with a parade around town, a bonfire, and a pep rally. The annual Homecoming Parade on Friday afternoon featured the F. C. H. S. Band, floats sponsored by school clubs, and the Homecoming Queen and her court.

A crowd of enthusiastic spectators witnessed an Eagle victory of 20-6 over Galax Friday night. The Homecoming Queen, Mr. Football, and the Honor Attendants were presented at half-time.

Later a dance was held in the cafeteria with the theme "Over the Rainbow" being skillfully portrayed through the colorful decorations and entertainment. One of the high points of Homecoming was the enchanting music of the Air Force Orchestra from Langley Field, Virginia.

Homecoming preparations occupy long hours,

The Alpha Tri-Hi-Y and the Junior Tri-Hi-Y co-sponsored the winning float, Cornucopia. The gold colored horn of plenty with bushels of flowers and fruits reminded students to "Count Your Blessings."

The newly organized Pep Club aids the Cheer Club by taking the responsibility of decorating the goal posts before each football game as of this year.

Miss Ann Wray, Queen of Homecoming '59, and Mr. Football, Bill Davis, reign over Homecoming festivities.

Miss Betty Sigmon was selected by the student body as the Queen's honor attendant.

Christmas brings thoughts of giving---

Santa Claus wishes everyone a very Merry Christmas during the Christmas Parade activities.

GAY COLORS, laughing faces, thoughtful minds, all added to the spirit of the Christmas season. Lending a sparkling touch to the hallways, doors and bulletin boards were gaily decorated.

Many clubs, too, added to the happiness of the Yuletide Season by preparing baskets for needy families.

Then, on the last day of school before Christmas, came the Christmas Assembly of the student body. It was highlighted by the band which played a selection of Christmas music; the play, "The Desert Shall Rejoice", presented by the Dramatics Club; and the choir which sang a number of Christmas carols.

The Dramatics Club in their Annual Christmas Pageant portrayed the real meaning of Christmas in a contemporary style.

New Year's Resolutions, too.

... pull fire alarms

... eat in class
... keep a messy locker

... be a litter bug

THE THEME of the Junior-Senior Prom 1959 was "Showboat". The decorations were in the form of the backyard of a fashionable mansion on the Mississippi River. The Cotton Blossom, a showboat, was on the river behind the house. The pale blue sky was starry; and the mood, musical. This was the beginning of a lovely evening and pleasant memories.

The Refreshment Committee planned, prepared, and served refreshments at the close of the Prom.

KAY JAMES SANG "Bill" taken from the Broadway musical. Show Boat was carried out with the use of a large showboat as a backdrop. Those participating in the floor show were A. G. The floor show and all the decorations were proof that many hours and hard work were spent in preparation for the Prom.

All juniors and seniors joined together to present the figure. A large '59 was formed for the enjoyment of the parents and spectators.

Guiding a consolidated school system is no small task. The Franklin County School Board, The Board of Supervisors, the superintendent of schools, and Franklin County High Schools' principal and counselors performed their duties with skill gained from years of experience and training. Administrators found paths worn to their offices by students requesting aid. Teachers expounded their collective knowledge for five hours each day and spent another hour keeping order in study halls. Of the many elements that make up a school, the faculty, though often the least appreciated, is certainly the most valuable.

Academic Courses are the foundation of a high school. Franklin County High has nine departments: Language, Mathematics, Science, Music, Social Studies, Business, Vocational Agriculture, Home Economics, and Physical Education. Fifty-five instructors offer hard-to-obtain knowledge or interesting adventure in various fields of study. Although a student needs to spend only four periods a day in class to complete graduation requirements, many ambitious ones pursue six subjects. Each year new methods of teaching are put into operation. Students are thankful for educational opportunities offered to them.

Studies of various languages and cultures

Roman togas were the order of the day at the Annual "eggs to apples" banquet of the Junior Classical League. Beginning with a pre-dinner devotional honoring the gods, the evening ended with entertainment featuring would-be gladiators and artists. Upperclassmen held the positions of honor, with underclassmen serving as indentured servants.

promote understanding.

THE LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT-English, Spanish, and Latin-is essential for the high school or college bound student.

The English Department is well staffed and divided into three sections-general, academic, and business.

The Language Arts impressed upon the minds of the students the importance of correct punctuation, sentence structure, and spelling. Themes, business and social letters, oral talks, and reading in literature helped to develop skill in clear thinking and effective communication.

Richard Lynch and Jackie Dillon won the honor of being selected "Typical Spanish Boy and Girl" on initiation day.

and science courses prepare future scientists.

MATHEMATICS INCLUDES general math, algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, trigonometry, and advanced algebra. Science includes general science, biology, chemistry, and physics.

While students may not take all these courses, they realize that they are very essential in modern-day life. Without realizing it, we use math and are involved in science almost everyday of our life. Therefore, we have come to accept them as essential courses.

Physics students experiment with the inclined plane while Mr. Divers helps individuals who become puzzled.

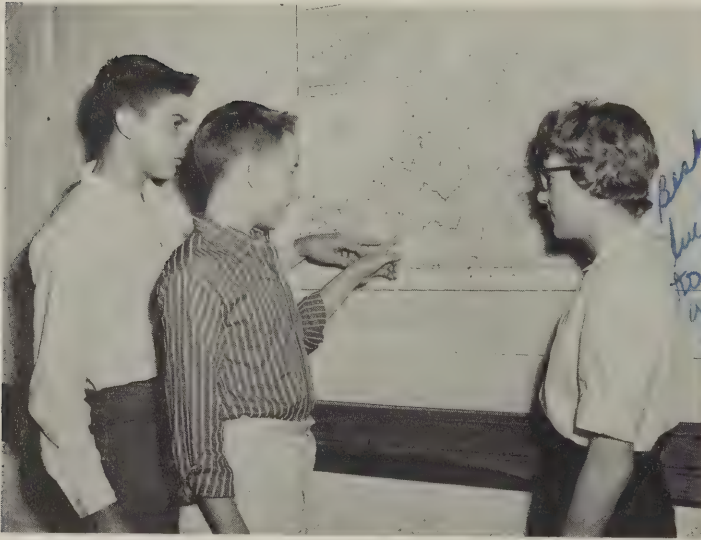

Biology students use their new microscopes to get a close look at minute substances.

Chemistry students explain the process of distillation to one of Mr. Williams' classes.

Social Studies are essential to modern living.

Danny Frith, Buddy McBride, and Carol Holcomb discover that they live in the 21st senatorial district.

IN ORDER FOR A student to graduate from F. C. H. S., he must have completed two courses in Social Studies. These courses are Va. and U. S. History and government. Other Social Studies classes offered to the student are civics, world history, economics, and world geography.

The aim of the Social Studies Department is to make each student a beneficial and dependable citizen.

Eldean Jones, Nancy Hodges, Billy Southall, Haywood Wray, Wyleina Bowman, and Ann Lumsden discuss the nations of the United Nations.

The Distributive Education class practices the fine art of salesmanship before Mr. Musick.

D.E. Students study in class, gain experience on jobs.

Jerry Brooks performs the many routine duties of a service station attendant.

THE DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION program during 1959-60 gave students an opportunity to become better citizens through on-the-job training and actual experience in selling. The students, who carried two regular school subjects plus an hour of D. E. class work, checked out each afternoon to gain valuable experience in selling and to learn how to spend their earnings more wisely.

A course in bookkeeping will give students part of the necessary knowledge to become a secretary.

Modern machines aid these girls in speed and accuracy in office machine class.

THROUGH COURSES in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping, the business education department prepared students to secure business positions. Approximately 600 students availed themselves of the opportunities offered in the typing classes during the year 1959-60. A large number of these students chose typing as preparation for college or for personal use.

Many students in typing classes applied their skill in stencil-making and in using mimeograph machines to help teachers in the preparation of instructional materials.

These courses in business education enabled students to acquire vocational skill and to learn the fundamentals of office practice. In this way they were prepared to meet the demands of the business world.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSES sought to make the students aware of the value of a good home. These future homemakers learned how to cook for their families and to plan and make many useful garments through the development of practical homemaking projects; the students learned to work independently toward the solution of personal or homemaking problems.

Working behind the scenes of many school activities, students of Vo-Ag program were challenged to apply the skills and understanding they had gained.

DURING 1959-60 the physical education program provided many sports for both boys and girls. Interscholastic sports included football, basketball, track and basketball. The program provided wholesome recreational activities for the students. It sought to develop muscular skills through participation in both team and individual sports. Finally, it endeavored to create and maintain a spirit of good sportsmanship, not only in interclass games but also in interscholastic competition. It forever strove to perpetuate a spirit of kindness, courtesy, and respect toward all students representing neighboring schools.

Basketball is a great favorite in the boys' physical education classes.

There's never a dull moment on Fridays when social dancing is scheduled for the physical education classes.

JUNIOR HOMEROOM PRESIDENTS—Mary Vaughn Webb, Kitty Cooper, Mary K. Martin, Carrie Holland, Rickard Newbill, Gene Nichols, Ray Boone, Perry Adcock.

THE JUNIOR CLASS experienced their most eventful year during 1959-60. The routine of school life was enlivened by happenings which the members of the class will not soon forget.

For the first time in high school, we were able to elect our class officers, and the student body president for the coming year was elected from our class.

Selecting our class rings and giving the Prom in honor of the seniors were the highlights of the year.

The Sophomore Class

WE, THE CLASS OF '62, are at the halfway mark of our high school education. For many of us, the sophomore year was the important one. This was the year in which we ventured into the newness of making decisions—we decided what clubs to join and what courses to study in our last two years here. Some of our talented sophomores participated in sports, giving strong support to our teams. We had the distinction of being the largest class in our school. Our goal now is to be the largest graduating class of F. C. H. S.

Several talented eighth graders participated in band—three were selected as majorettes. Others demonstrated their ability in sports as the eighth grade team competed successfully against area rivals.

ACTIVITIES HAVE A TWOFOLD
PURPOSE — to teach us responsibility and cooperativeness and to provide extra curricular recreation. Through clubs and various other organizations we learn the enjoyment of working together along with responsibility.

Regardless of what a student's interests might be, he can find a group in which he can render service and gain enjoyment. Each club offers opportunities for service, education, and fellowship.

Best of Luck to you and your boyfriend, especially all of those days I see you walking up the hall with ^{to}. Hope to see you a lot this summer and hope to see you next year. Helen Johnson

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL Student Council Co-operative Association is composed of all the students of F. C. H. S. From these students a representative assembly is chosen which is called the Student Council. The Student Council is an organization dedicated to school service and improvement. They sponsor various activities of the school year, encourage and promote school spirit, conduct school assemblies, and study various school problems with an eye toward progress and achievement. The Student Council is represented at the district and state conventions and maintains membership in the Virginia Student Co-operative Association and the National Association of Student Councils.

MORE STUDENTS, more activities, and more pages caused more trial and tribulations for the 1960 ANIMO staff. Theme, pictures, copy, and layouts were planned entirely by the staff.

To produce an annual as large as ours, it is important to have eager and willing students working on it. Much sacrifice on the part of these students has gone into the production of this book.

The big event on the Beta Club calendar

BETA OFFICERS—Elwood Asbury, vice-president; Miss Prillaman, sponsor; Dickie Turner, President; Freda Ashworth, reporter; Emily Sue Ayers, treasurer; Marie Angle, secretary.

MEMBERSHIP IN THE BETA CLUB is the highest honor a Franklin County High School student can obtain. High standards in scholarship, leadership, character, conduct, and service limit the membership to those who stand out in the senior and junior classes. The Franklin County Chapter of the National Beta Club is an achievement-service organization. Membership in the club was not only an honor, it provided the members an opportunity to perform worthwhile projects for the school and carry out its objectives.

The main objective of the Beta Club is to improve the honesty and the integrity of all the students in their activities and studies. Its other objectives are to contribute money to the Beta Education Fund and to the School Chest Drive, to make a gift to the school, to play Santa to a family at Christmas, to secure student blood donors for the Red Cross Blood Mobile, to charter a bus to go to the state convention in Roanoke, and to run a candidate for state vice-president.

The money raising projects included selling pencils, having bake sales, and selling stationery.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y made trips to Martinsville

Judy McMinnis, Iris Hodges, Leveene Sink, and Madeline Bowles feel that garments must be mended before giving them to a needy family at Christmas time.

THE TRI-HI-Y, composed of young Christian girls, provides an opportunity for service in the home, school, and community. The platform calls for clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living.

The Tri-Hi-Y is known as a service organization. In fulfilling this purpose we gave baskets to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas, held induction service for the new members at the Rocky Mount Baptist Church, built the prize winning float at homecoming, made contributions to the School Chest Drive and to the work of District Y. M. C. A., co-sponsored weekly devotionals at school, and groups attended the Thanksgiving Union Service held throughout the county.

Emily Sue Ayers, Daphene Washburn, Jean Angel, and Gay Frith represented the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y at the district meeting held in Martinsville, Virginia. Each year delegates are selected to attend the convention in order to obtain ideas and plans for the improvement of the club. Members of the Tri-Hi-Y are also chosen to attend Model General Assembly in Richmond, Virginia in the early spring. Here delegates and senators learn how our legislature works.

THE JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y is an organization of ninth and tenth grade girls. Trying to uphold Christian standards, we co-sponsor weekly devotions at school by visiting ministers, prepare baskets at Christmas time for needy families, distribute Bibles to senior homerooms, and contribute to the District Y. M. C. A. Extension Fund and Y. M. C. A. World Service Fund. We also send delegates to Model General Assembly and representatives to the District Tri-Hi-Y meetings each year.

THE MAIN PURPOSE of the Spanish Club is to give the students more practice in speaking the Spanish they have learned in the classroom. The meetings and programs are conducted in Spanish. The club entered a convertible in the Homecoming Parade and delivered boxes to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The club celebrated Christmas with the traditional pinata of Spanish speaking countries. The highlight of the year was the Spanish Fiesta in the spring.

THE "SOCIETAS LATINA" is a chapter of the Junior Classical League, a national organization, whose purpose is to carry the message of classical civilization to the modern world.

Composed of students taking Latin, the aim of the Latin Club is (1) to encourage an interest in and an appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome (2) to help students think for themselves, clearly and accurately.

Of the phases of Roman and Greek life dramatized by the club, the most popular has been the Roman Banquet.

THE FIRST social event of the year was the initiation of new members, called slaves. The old members, or masters, subjected the slaves to various formalities of becoming J. C. L. members. Later in the year the league members enjoyed a Roman banquet, at which the slaves served typical Roman foods to the reclining masters. During the meal they had various types of entertainment.

Harrison Armstrong and Jeanette Ingram were selected by their fellow club members as the best dressed Romans on initiation day.

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY CHAPTER of Future Homemakers of America, a national organization of girls who enrolled in homemaking classes, had as the theme of their program of work this year "Our Families' Well Being." This program was based on the National F. H. A. projects which are Home Beautification, Safety, Family Unity, and Family Fitness. In order to carry out these projects, the chapter planned many major activities.

A real highlight of these was the annual fall banquet held jointly with the F. F. A. Since our chapter did the most outstanding work in the state, an original skit, "Heads Up For Safety," was presented at the national convention in Chicago.

GIRLS' CHORUS OFFICERS — Venita Hundley, vice-president; Rosemary Ayers, president; Peggy Duke, secretary-treasurer.

THE GIRLS' CHORUS under the direction of Mrs. Nelson Payne was organized last year and has a twofold purpose; to teach an appreciation of the best in music and to give pupils a chance to develop their own musical talents.

It was necessary to have two periods because of the number of students interested.

The Girls' Chorus has participated in various community programs during the year. Included were the Christmas program, various P. T. A. programs, and the minstrel. The highlight of the year's work was the Spring Concert.

THE DRAMATICS CLUB is an organization which endeavors to give students an opportunity to participate in stage productions, costume and scenic designing, and all facets of theatre work. The group has been very active ever since Franklin County High School first opened its doors. The purpose of this organization is to foster and promote cultural enrichment through the medium of actual participation in the field of dramatic arts.

This year the group, under the sponsorship of Mr. Lee Morris, presented a Christmas play, "The Desert Shall Rejoice," a contemporary approach to the well loved Christmas story in the Bible. This play was presented to the student body, P. T. A., and the Jr. and Sr. Women's Clubs of Rocky Mount. It was also F. C. H. S.'s entry in the One-Act Play Festival. In the spring, the group presented a 3-Act Play. Among other events, the Dramatics Club held a very successful dance on "Friday '13" and had a Bake Sale.

THE LIBRARY CLUB is a service organization that gives assistance to teachers and students in the high school. Requirements for membership consist of a satisfactory course in Library Science and an academic standing that will permit the use of study hall time for library work. The members serve as student assistants in the library, and perform much routine library work, thus freeing the librarians for more professional duties.

At present there are twenty-two members, chosen on the basis of their training, dependability, interest in books, and their willingness to render service to the school.

D.E. Club trains students on the job.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVE of the D. E. Club is to prepare students for careers in the wide field of distribution. The student has an opportunity to supplement his classroom instruction with actual on-the-job training. Professional speakers which are familiar with the field of distribution are invited to speak to the class.

In addition, the Club participates in many worthwhile projects, such as the District Initiation Ceremony, float for the parade, basket for needy family during Christmas, an annual assembly program, decoration of hospital Christmas tree, and the annual District D. E. Convention.

D. E. OFFICERS—Jerry Brooks, vice-president; Faye Carter, reporter; Judy Frith, secretary; Tommy Webster, president; Allie Mae Blankenship, parliamentarian; Mr. Musick, sponsor; Chris Stanley, treasurer.

Franklin County High School's program of competitive interscholastic athletics presented a picture of practical balance between victories and defeats. Autumn Friday nights found students in the stands, waving and cheering the Eagles. Basketball in the gymnasium drew crowds during the winter months. Through the efforts of the Cheerleaders and the Pep Club, the cheering section became noisier and more spirited with each contest. Warming weather marked seasons in baseball and track. In May, awards were presented to outstanding athletes.

COACHED BY STEVE RICHARDS, the J. V. Football Squad had a fine 6-1-1 record. With a solid line, good backfield speed, and better than average bench strength, the team was a good contender for their adversaries. Beaten by Jefferson in the first game, the Eaglets went on to sweep six wins in a row, before tying Cave Spring in last game.

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY HIGH School basketball team, led by co-captains Jerry Dillon and John Joplin, compiled a greatly improved record, 8-8. Coach Bob Fitts led the eagles through the most successful season in the history of F.C.H.S. Overpowering Martinsville's Bulldogs, a feat never before accomplished by our school, won our team a bid to the District VI semi-finals. In a thrilling contest the Eagles overcame Radford's Bobcats, 90-85, to take third place honors in District VI.

The team rests during a time out as Coach Fitts explains a bit of strategy.

Baseball team has 9-6 record.

THE BASEBALL TEAM, under Coach Steve Richards, running true to form secured a 9-6 record this year. With good all around batting and pitching the team was balanced. They were seldom beaten throughout the campaign and lost three games by a very slim margin. Although graduation hit the team, there is still much talent for the team next year.

A yearbook cannot be published by sweat alone; financial resources must be plentiful. A great part of these come from loyal industries and businesses in this town that advertise. Although the Animo staff feels that advertisements in their annual will prove to be of definite value to the advertiser, they would still like to express appreciation to the businesses concerned. This section also contains elements without which no book would be complete — the student index, statistics, and the appreciation. As this book draws to a close, so does this year, but both will certainly never be forgotten.
